Not a bad machine as long as you are the only operator. Uncle has one on his farm. It was one of the first Terex backhoes, as noted by the fact that it was painted as a fermec, then repainted at the factory as a terex. It is a 760. Smooth machine. I would recommend staying away from the skid steer style coupler for the front bucket.

In many respects, the Terex TLB840 was designed by actual customers. The company surveyed users to learn what functionality details they most wanted in a backhoe loader, then incorporated those features into the new machine. That means you'll find a more spacious, ergonomic cab, extended digging depth and reach capability, increased power and ...
