Caesar's Gallic Druids were members of a highly developed national organisation with a special training. In the Irish texts, however, the word druidecht, literally 'druidcraft', is simply a general term for magic. Anybody who works magic can be called a Druid while they are doing so, irrespective of what they are in the rest of the story.

This battle rez is amazing. In many of the raids I have been to, druids have really saved the day. One VERY popular boss strategy relies on this. For Razorgore the Untamed, the first boss in BWL, warlocks soulstone the druids, who in turn resurrect priests for phase 2 of the battle. 3 priests in a battle do alot less than 3 druids and 3 priests.
